

COLLEGE GRANT PROGRAMS

Pell Grant Program

Description: This program provides direct student grants based on the number of credits enrolled. To determine if you are eligible, the U.S. Department of Education uses a standard formula, passed by Congress, to evaluate the information you report on your student aid application.

Eligibility: Student who is enrolled as a regular student in at least three (3) credit hours and who is a United States citizen, national, or permanent resident, refugee or under official political asylum. Students must show satisfactory progress.

Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants

What is a SEOG?

A Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant (SEOG) is an award to help you pay for your education after high school. It is for undergraduates only, and it does not have to be paid back.

You can get up to $4,000 a year, depending on your need, the availability of SEOG funds, and the amount of other aid you are receiving.

College Work-Study

What is College Work-Study?

The College work-Study (CWS) Program provides jobs for undergraduate and graduate students who need financial aid. CWS gives you a chance to earn money to help pay your educational expenses.

How much can I make?

Your pay will be at least the current federal minimum wage, but it may also be related to the type of work you do and its difficulty.

Your total CWS award depends on your need, the amount of money your school has for this program, and the amount of aid you get from other programs.

Institutional Aid

St. Augustine College offers five forms of institutional aid: the Bridge Award, the SAC award, the Presidential Scholarship, the Presidential Discretionary Fund, and the Specialized Grants.

Bridge Award

The Bridge Award is a need-based complementary grant for new students (it does not apply to students on F1 visa) who can demonstrate financial need. The award can be applied to cover tuition shortfalls and it will be offered to the student at the time of registration. If the student withdraws during the semester, the Bridge Award will be prorated using the same guidelines as other grants.

- New students.
- Students must demonstrate "financial need".

SAC Award

The SAC Award is a merit and need-based grant. The grant applies to Continuing and returning students. The SAC Award, for eligible continuing students, is Granted based on need and the Grade Point Average from the prior semester attended. In the Case of returning students the SAC Award is granted based on need and Cumulative Grade Point Average from prior semesters attended.

- For students registered for less than 12 credit hours, their award will be prorated based on Actual registered hours.

This award can be applied to cover tuition only. The award is assigned at the time of registration. If the student withdraws during the semester, the SAC Award will be prorated, using the same guidelines as other grants.

- The student is a continuing student in second semester or beyond or, if he or she is a returning student.
- The student must demonstrate "financial need".
- The student is an international student on F 1 Visa.
- The student was eligible for financial aid in the previous semester, and is not eligible for MAP or Pell, or both, for the current semester. He /she must be enrolled in his/her final year of the degree being pursued with a maximum of 24 credit hours pending. The student has to apply for financial aid.
