TRAUMA + IMMIGRATION DAY CONFERENCE

"The Borderlands of Hurt & Healing"

LOCATION: Charlie Chaplin Auditorium,
St. Augustine College, 1345 W. Argyle St, Chicago, IL
TIME: 12:00 PM - 8:30PM

Join us for our inaugural Trauma + Immigration Day Conference at St. Augustine College where we explore "The Borderlands of Hurt & Healing" as it relates to the immigrant experience and trauma. This conference will include teaching and shared practices, community conversations and panel discussions, which will explore the intersections of the immigrant experience and trauma. We will center the experiences of Latinx immigrants in this engagement as St. Augustine works to support the Latinx community of Chicago and its surrounding area, serving as the only bilingual college in the Midwest.
