

Adjunct Faculty Positions: ESL and Composition

The Languages, Literature and Humanities Department is seeking to hire adjunct instructors to teach ESL and Composition at our three campuses and two teaching centers throughout Chicago.

Qualified candidates for the ESL/developmental courses should possess MA in Linguistics/TESOL or a directly related field, as well as relevant language teaching experience. Some knowledge of Spanish is a plus.

Qualified candidates for Composition courses should possess MFA in writing, or MA in writing, rhetoric, MAT (English), as well as teaching experience. Some knowledge of Spanish is a plus.

We are looking to fill various positions for the Spring 2020 semester, which begins January 27; however, we also welcome applications from qualified applicants year-round, as we expand into new locations.

St. Augustine College is an Affirmative Action-Equal Opportunity Employer. The College adheres to all applicable employment and non-discrimination laws. Minorities are encouraged to apply. All qualified and interested candidates are encouraged to apply following the instructions detailed below.

If you have additional questions about compensation, class availability, or any other related topic, they can be answered after the initial screening for candidates. There is ample, free parking in a lot available to teachers and students.
